

Guidelines for Authors of Russian Meteorology and Hydrology

1. The length of a manuscript should not exceed 15 pages in A4 format, including the list of references, tables, and figures (color figures are also accepted). There may be up to three figures in the manuscript.
2. The submitted manuscript should include the main text; abstract of no more than 12 lines, which gives a clear idea of the content of the manuscript; keywords; the list of references in alphabetical order of authors' surnames; tables with headings, each table on a separate page; figures; the list of figure captions; and information about the author(s). The entire set is submitted in two copies.

The manuscript should be structured using standard sections: INTRODUCTION, MATERIALS AND METHODS, RESULTS, DISCUSSION, and CONCLUSIONS.

The manuscript should be presented in digital form and submitted by e-mail: the text in Microsoft Word format and figures in TIFF files. Figures should not be inserted into the text of the manuscript. Figures should be submitted in two versions: black-and-white and color.

3. The manuscript should be typeset double-spaced on standard A4 format pages with the following margins: 25 mm on the left and bottom, 10 mm on the right, and 20 mm on the top.
4. All abbreviations and notation used in the manuscript should be explained on first mention. Terminology should be used consistently throughout the manuscript.
5. Illustrations are submitted in digital form. The sizes of illustrations must be fully consistent with the size of the printed journal (124 × 176 mm).

All images are prepared in TIFF format with a resolution of 650 dpi. Illustrations should only contain 8-bit color. The color space must match the content of the image: if it contains only black and white dots, select bitmap format; if it is a halftone object, use grayscale; and if it contains a range of colors, use CMYK or RGB. The thickness of lines in figures should be at least 0.3 pt (0.13 mm). The use of dot shading in vector graphics is not allowed.

6. The manuscript should be signed by all the authors with indication of their full names, addresses, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, affiliations with the mailing address, academic degrees, and titles.
7. If the manuscript is revised by the authors, the date when the final version is returned to the editorial board is considered the date of receipt. A request to revise a manuscript does not mean its acceptance for publication; revised manuscripts are considered again by the editorial board.
8. It is not allowed to make any significant corrections or additions to the proof against the original version.
9. The editorial board reserves the right to make the necessary edits, additions, and reductions.
