INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

1 The Chinese Annals of Mathematics (CAM) is a comprehensive mathematical journal carrying original papers on pure and applied mathematics. CAM Series B (English series) is published bimonthly jointly by the Editorial Office of CAM and Springer-Verlag, and distributed all over the world. Contributions from mathematicians in all countries and regions are welcome.

2 Manuscripts should be prepared and submitted in accordance with the following instructions:

2.1 A system of responsibility and recommendation by members of the Editorial Board is in practice for treating contributions. Manuscripts for publication in CAM should be sent in triplicate either to a member of the Editorial Board who has similar research interest or directly to the Editorial Office. Author(s) may also submit the PS or PDF file of the manuscript via e-mail. The research interest, postal and e-mail addresses of each member of the Editorial Board are listed in the first issue of each year. As manuscripts will not be returned, author(s) are advised to retain a copy of them.
