

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

Acta Oceanologica Sinica (AOS) is a comprehensive academic journal edited by the Editorial Committee of Acta Oceanologica Sinica and is designed to provide a forum for important research papers of the marine scientific community which reflect the information on a worldwide basis. The journal publishes scholarly papers on marine science and technology, including physics, chemistry, biology, hydrology, meteorology, geology, engineering, remote sensing, etc. Progress reports on research projects are also included.

Submission of papers

A submission to AOS must be the original work of authors which have not been published or under consideration for another publication in a similar form. Authors are requested to submit the electronic version of the manuscript and figures (in MS WORD) on line (<https://mc03.manuscriptcentral.com/actaos>). Please include your E-mail address, phone in the title page. For further information, please contact with our editors: Yang Mingchun and Yu Qiutao, China Ocean Press, No. 8 Dahuisi Street, Haidian District, Beijing 100081, China. E-mail: hyxbe@263.net. Phone number: 86-10-62179976.

Manuscript preparation

General: Manuscripts must be typewritten, double-spaced with wide margins on one side of white paper. Full postal addresses must be given for all co-authors. Authors should consult a recent issue of the journal for style if possible.

Title: The title should be short and informative. Authors should avoid using abbreviations, chemical element signs and mathematical variable signs in the title.

Abstracts: The essential contents of each paper should be recapitulated briefly in an abstract of not more than 500 words at the head of the paper.

Keywords: Please provide up to three to six subject key words.

Text: Follow this order: Title, Authors, Affiliations, Abstract, Key Words, Main Text, Acknowledgements, References, Appendix, Figures and then Tables.

Units: Units should be SI with the exception of a few approved non-SI units of wide oceanographic usage.

Figures: Authors should send high quality electronic form of all figures. We recommend that the figures are saved as vector diagrams (such as *.eps, *.emf, *.wmf) besides photographs.

References: All publications cited in the text should be presented in a list of references following the text of the manuscript. In the text refer to the author's family name (without initials) "Wang (1998) has shown that..." or "This is in agreement with results obtained later (Kramer, 2001)". For three or more authors use the first author followed by "et al." in the text. The list of references should be arranged alphabetically by authors' names. References should be given in the following form:

Research data policy

The journal encourages authors, where possible and applicable, to deposit data that support the findings of their research in a public repository. Authors and editors who do not have a preferred repository should consult Springer Nature's list of repositories and research data policy.

- List of Repositories
- Research Data Policy

General repositories - for all types of research data - such as figshare and Dryad may also be used.

Datasets that are assigned digital object identifiers (DOIs) by a data repository may be cited in the reference list. Data citations should include the minimum information recommended by DataCite: authors, title, publisher (repository name), identifier.

- DataCite

Springer Nature provides a research data policy support service for authors and editors, which can be contacted at researchdata@springernature.com.

This service provides advice on research data policy compliance and on finding research data repositories. It is independent of journal, book and conference proceedings editorial offices and does not advise on specific manuscripts.
